Membership Class Definitions—from the VRWPA By-Laws, May 2012

Classes of Members. The membership of the Corporation shall be divided into five classes: (1) Regular Members, (2) Regular Members-Voting, (3) Associate Members, (4) Corporate Members, (5) Affiliate Members.

Regular Member. Regular members include any individual, association or corporation that owns property in the Highlands. Each piece of property may have only one designated Regular Member-Voting, and entitled to one vote per piece of property (See 3.2 (b).) i.e. a husband and wife owning property in the Highlands, both are Regular members but only one can be designated as the Regular Member-Voting.

Regular Member -Voting. Regular Members-Voting includes any individual, association or corporation that owns property in the Highlands and has been designated as the Regular Members with voting privileges. To be a Regular Member-Voting they must apply for membership on a form approved by the Board of Directors. This form will show proof of ownership of property in the Highlands. Each piece of property may have only one designated regular member and entitled to one vote per piece of property.

Associate Member. Associate members include all members of the Corporation who are neither Regular members, Corporate members nor Affiliate members.

Corporate Member. Corporate members include all members of the Corporation who are business entities and/or an advocacy group with similar goals of the corporation. They are neither Regular members, Associate members nor Affiliate members.

Affiliate Member. Include individuals who are currently pursuing a full time education or under 18 years of age or any senior citizen age 65 or over on a fixed income.

Voting Rights. Each Regular Member - Voting, in good standing shall be entitled to cast one vote with respect to the elections of officers. There shall not be any voting of members by proxy. Associate, Corporate and Affiliate members shall have no voting rights. Votes may be taken by voice, by a show of hands or by written ballot. Voting members shall have no right to cumulate their votes.

Termination of Membership. The membership of each member of the Corporation will terminate upon the member's death, resignation, expulsion, or failure to pay dues as next described. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, each member's membership will immediately terminate if his or her membership dues have not been paid within ninety-one (91) days after such member's dues were due. Members terminated as a result of expulsion may not renew their membership in the Corporation without obtaining the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all the directors. Members terminated as a result of non-payment of dues may reactivate their membership in the Corporation within two years after such termination by the payment of all current and past due membership dues. Members terminated as a result of resignation or for non-payment of dues in excess of two years may renew their membership only by re-application for membership in the Corporation.

Suspension and Expulsion. Any member may be suspended or expelled from membership with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all the directors if, in the discretion of the Board as indicated by such vote, such suspension or expulsion would be in the best interests of the Corporation. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed as granting to any member a continued membership or expectation of membership in the Corporation.
